

THE PATRICK A. CLUTTER SCHOLARSHIP & MEMORIAL FUND

The Patrick A. Clutter Scholarship was founded to assist students of Wheeling Park High School with financial resources to attend colleges, universities, or vocational centers of their choice. Pat Clutter, longtime educator at Wheeling Park High School, founded and established the Radio and Television curriculum as it is known today. The purpose of this scholarship is to make it possible for students to continue their education in the fields of Radio and Television. It is also the purpose of the scholarship to encourage young men and women to become better citizens by giving them an opportunity to further their education.

The Fund is invested and managed by Wesbanco Bank of Wheeling as Trustee under the Community Foundation.

The Scholarship Committee is composed of five individuals who serve without compensation and who are charged with the responsibility of selecting deserving students to receive scholarships, the amount of each scholarship award, and the enforcement of all rules, regulations, and requirements.

ELIGIBILITY: Any young man or woman who is a legal resident of Ohio County, West Virginia, who has attended Wheeling Park High School, who has completed Radio and Television classes for two consecutive years and who is a member of the current graduating class of Wheeling Park High School is eligible.

SELECTION: Scholastic achievement will be given strong consideration. The Scholarship Committee will consider school performance, need, academic record and demonstrated aptitude of motivation to succeed in the pursuit of a qualified career path. All current high school applicants must have at least a 3.0 GPA.

The dollar amount(s) of the scholarship(s) will be determined by the Patrick A. Clutter Scholarship Committee.

The scholarship will be for one year only.

Application deadline is May of each year. Date floats based on graduation date - review with instructor on exact due date of current application.
